

THE ANGLICAN PARISH OF
S. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS,
CHRISTCHURCH

Trinity Sunday
12 June 2022

From the Priest-in-Charge....

Dear Parish Family, Kia Ora e Te Whanau,

The Trinity celebration is the Queen of all the festivals. This great feast of the Church is all about relationships. The ancient Greek Fathers depict the Trinity as a Circle Dance of Creator, Christ and Spirit, a to-and-fro expression of love energy, dynamic, generative, an infinity of trust and mutuality. The Rublev icon [printed on the front of this pew sheet] in its many themes has at the heart this concept of the mutuality of love. We humans, made as we believe in the image of God, made in love and for love, exist only in terms of relationships. Love cannot love unless it is expressed and experienced within relationships. And it is the quality and value of our relationships that is part of our expression, experience and yearning for life. The Trinity is the expression of all that true and mutual relationship can be.

This is not Trinity in the traditional sense of Father Son and Holy Spirit in some sort of hierarchical relationship which justified the imbalance and power-over structures within societies. No, not this, but rather the dynamic and dance of interpersonal relationships, where there is not simply me and you, me and my computer in front of me as I write, me and the beach I walked along yesterday, me and my relationship with my own inner world. There is always a third element- the breath of God – God's life, love, spirit, dancing between us, empowering and enabling each of us to be all that we can be. There is always the opportunity and possibility of more.

When we approach every experience of our daily lives with this faith and understanding, how our priorities can change. When I allow myself to connect heart, mind and body to the experiences of those around me, and the world in which I am set, I experience God, the energy and the risk of abundant life. As Mother Julian encourages us: 'put your mind into your heart and stand in the presence of God all day.'

Blessings

Fr Pete

Introit Hymn: 146

Greeting:

Ki te ingoa ✠ o te Matua, me te Tamaiti, me te Wairua Tapu. Amine.
(In the name of the Father, and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.)
Grace and peace to you from God. God fill you with truth and joy.

The bread of life is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

The people are invited to call to mind their sins.

God has promised forgiveness to all who truly repent, turn to Christ in faith and are themselves forgiving. In silence we call to mind our sins.

Silence.

Let us confess our sins.

Merciful God, we have sinned in what we have thought and said, in the wrong we have done, and in the good we have not done. We have sinned in ignorance: we have sinned in weakness: we have sinned through our own deliberate fault. We are truly sorry. We repent and turn to you. Forgive us, for our Saviour Christ's sake, and renew our lives to the glory of your name. Amen.

All:

Kyrie, eleison, Kyrie, eleison.

Christe, eleison, Christe, eleison.

Kyrie, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

Priest:

Through the cross of Christ, ✠ God have mercy on you, pardon you, and set you free. Know that you are forgiven and be at peace. God strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in life eternal. Amen.

All:

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Priest:

Father, we praise you: through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things. You reveal your salvation in all the world by sending to us Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love. Fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: (sit) Proverbs 8: 1–4, 22–31

Sue Shannons

Thus says the wisdom of God:

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master-worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Thanks be to God.

1. When I look up at the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars you have set in their places, what are we mortals, that you should be mindful of us, mere human beings that you should care for us?
2. You have made us little less than divine and crowned us with glory and honour. You made us rulers over all your creation and put all things in subjection under our feet.
3. All sheep and cattle and all the creatures of the wild, the birds of the air and the fish in the sea, and all that make their way through the waters.

Second Reading: (sit) Romans 5: 1–5

Jenny Daniels

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Thanks be to God.

Cantor: Gospel Acclamation: (stand)

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

The Lord bless you

Praise and Glory to God

Gospel: John 16: 12–15

Mother Meg Harvey

Jesus said to his disciples: I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

This is the Gospel of Christ. Praise to Christ the Word.

Sermon: Fr Peter Beck

Affirmation of Faith:

You, O God, are supreme and holy. You create our world and give us life. Your purpose overarches everything we do. You have always been with us. You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous, good beyond all measure. You came to us before we came to you. You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ, who lived and died and rose again. You are with us now. You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit. You empower us to be your gospel in the world. You reconcile and heal; you overcome death. You are our God. We worship you.

Intercessions: Robert Maclagan

The Peace

Priest:

The peace of Christ be always with you. And also with you.

At the Peace all may exchange a non physical greeting with those near them.

Priest:

E te whanau, we are the body of Christ.

By one spirit we were baptised into one body.

Keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace:

Amen. We are bound by the love of Christ.

The Preparation of the Gifts

Priest:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation.

Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made.

It will become for us the bread of life. Blessed be God for ever.

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation.

Through your goodness we have this wine to offer,
fruit of the vine and work of human hands.

It will become our spiritual drink. Blessed be God for ever.

Offertory Hymn: 159 (omit verses 3 & 4)

Priest:

Pray, sisters and brothers,
that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty One.
May the Lord receive the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name,
for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Priest:

Living God, receive all we offer you this day. Grant that, hearing your word and responding to your Spirit, we may share in your divine life. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord is here.	God's Spirit is with us.
Lift up your hearts.	We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.	It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Priest:

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ your only Son.
We joyfully proclaim our faith in the mystery of your Godhead.
You have revealed your glory as the glory also of your Son and of the Holy Spirit: three persons equal in majesty, undivided in splendour, yet one Lord, one God, ever to be adored in your everlasting glory.
And so, with all the choirs of angels in heaven, we proclaim your glory and join in their unending hymn of praise:

Sanctus & Benedictus:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Priest:

All glory and thanksgiving to you, holy Father.
Send your Holy Spirit, that these gifts of bread and wine which we receive may be to us the body and blood of Christ, and that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power,
may be renewed for the service of your kingdom.

On the night before he died, your Son Jesus Christ took bread;
when he had given you thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.
After supper he took the cup;
when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them, and said:
Drink this, all of you,
for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins;
do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

Deacon:

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith: Glorify to you, Lord Christ: your death we show forth; your resurrection we proclaim; your coming we await. Amen! Come, Lord Jesus.

Priest:

Therefore, loving God, recalling your great goodness to us in Christ, his suffering and death, his resurrection and ascension, and looking for his coming in glory, we celebrate our redemption with this bread of life and this cup of salvation. Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which we offer through Christ, our great high priest.

Hear the prayers of the family you have gathered here before you. In mercy and love unite all your children, wherever they may be.

Welcome into your kingdom our departed brothers and sisters, and all who have left this world in your friendship. We hope to enjoy for ever the vision of your glory through Christ our Lord, from whom all good things come.

United in Christ with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing, honour and glory be yours,
here and everywhere, now and for ever. Amen.

Silence

Priest:

As Christ teaches us we pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

Priest:

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

Agnus Dei:

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us your peace.

Priest:

God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

This is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

Happy are we who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Communion in one kind will be administered from the front step at the centre of the aisle. Please leave your seat by the side aisle, and approach the centre aisle from the rear crossing. Please leave a 2m distance between yourself and others and please use the hand sanitizer. when receiving the sacrament, please stretch your arms horizontally as much as possible.

Communion Anthem: (Cantor) Let not your heart be troubled

David Powell

Prayer after Communion:

Father, you created us and sent your Son to bring us truth and your Spirit to make us holy. May we who have received this Eucharist know your loving presence with us always. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notices

Blessing:

May God the Father, who created us, draw you ever closer to himself. Amen.

May God the Son, who redeemed us, keep you always in his love. Amen.

May God the Holy Spirit, who sheds abroad the love of God in our hearts, guide and strengthen you this day. Amen.

And may the blessing of Father, Son ✠ and the Holy Spirit, be with you now and always. Amen.

Deacon:

The Mass is ended. Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.

Amen. We go in the name of Christ. Alleluia.

Final Hymn: 466

Organ Voluntary: Fugue in Eb (Trinity Fugue)

JS Bach

Corpus Christi

The Solemn Mass will be held on Thursday 16 June at 7.00pm in the Church.

From Fr Peter

- Next week marks the 171st anniversary of the founding of our school – Founders' Day. It is an occasion when school and parish join together for a 10am Festival Mass to celebrate our establishment in 1851. We will be welcoming a full church of parishioners, school students with parents, staff and board, followed by celebratory cake! All adults, please wear a mask. Please note there will be no reserved seats.
- This coming week the repaired Rose windows will be put back into the church. Please take care if you are in the church as they will be using scaffolding on the interior so that they can carry out repairs to the interior wooden frames whilst they are also putting the windows back in.
